Pray with us today.

Lord of all creation, you have written our story with hands of grace. Every chapter filled with mercy. Every verse a melody of love. May our lives sing of your faithfulness. Let our story be a testament of your goodness and our song a sweet offering before your throne. You weave sorrow in strands of gold, turning burdens into blessings unseen. Teach us to sing through every season, to trust when the road is steep, to know that your goodness is the chorus that carries us home. You, O Lord, are our keeper, our composer, our strength, our song. To you be all the glory, forever and ever.

Amen.

Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for men, since you know that you will receive an inheritance from the Lord as a reward. It is the Lord Christ you are serving.

A message posted by Sarah, John's wife, this morning:
John has passed over. The Hospital rang at 2pm. [...] He is now at peace & they said he had no distress. We had a lovely evening together with him & Sareena & Andy (friends) & had a laugh. Also James took the record player & we played Beatles & Incredible String Band for him. He is at rest. Thank you for all your prayers & visits. They were gratefully received and needed. Christmas Market Saturday December 6th 10am-2pm

Please put this date in your diary and see Janis or Chris if you are able to help in any way. Also, Chris will be running a chocolate stall again and there will be a White Elephant stall (Basically anything goes) plus a tombola (see Lesley Smith if you have anything to donate). Please start thinking about contributing if you can and tell people about the event. It was a great success last year, both financially and socially.
